Infero: Word which comes from the Latin Infero do inferior do or Infernus, the can bottom does.???? It has a neoplatonic philosophical sense, supporting the evolutionary idea of soul (part divine) and body (part worldly). Among the Egyptians was not hell a place of punishment by the fire until the 17TH or 18th dynasty, when Typhoon was transformed from a God to a devil. The superstitious idea souls tormented him, and a scorching place is a purely Egyptian conjecture historically instilled and widespread among the ignorant masses. The Bible relates the term hell with Gehenna??, although this Hebrew voice never really had the meaning given to him by the Christian orthodoxy; because it was the name of a valley in Jerusalem called Ge-Hinnom, desecrated in antiquity by sacrifices of children, which were burned in offering to the God Moloch (Leviticus 18.21) which thereafter was considered a synonym of a do damn place do.??
