

SPANISH DICTIONARY

Danilo Enrique Noreña Benítez

INTRODUCTION

amp.wordmeaning.org is an open and collaborative dictionary project that, apart from being able to consult meanings of words, also offers its users the possibility of including new words or nuancing the meaning of existing words in it. As is understandable, this project would be impossible to carry out without the esteemed collaboration of the people who follow us around the world. This e-Book, therefore, was born with the intention of paying a small tribute to all our collaborators.

Danilo Enrique Noreña Benítez has contributed to the dictionary with 35057 meanings that we have approved and collected in this small book. We hope that the reader is very valuable and if you find it useful or want to be part of the project, do not hesitate to visit our website, we will be delighted to receive you.

Working Group

amp.wordmeaning.org

parlante

It means he talks a lot, he talks, he broadcasts voices, he chats. Talking chatter, blissman. Sound implement that is also called speaker or sound amplifier. Nickname of a former Colombian cyclist named Hernando Agudelo. This nickname was inherited by his brother Gonzalo, who is now a mechanical and technical assistant to several cycling teams in Colombia.

parle

Mean talk, say something, decide. The verb parlar which means talk. It is widely used in Colombia to designate who is given the opportunity to talk to someone even if you have no reason in any way. It is synonymous with garlar. Taken from talking, which speaks of how messy and inconsistent. Talk (garle or parle) as a parrot or a magpie. In a word in the French language which means talk.

parlería

Who speaks, talks or talks abundantly. Verbosity, verbiage, abundance of words in the speech.

parlotee

It is an inflection of chattering. Mean parlar, talk, talk for a long time. Speak without rest.

parmesano

It means that it is originally from Parma, in Italy. Related to Parma . Type of cheese produced in that region.

parner

It is the name of a Paraguayan musical trio of Hip Hop, Pop and Romantic Reggeaton. It is composed of Miguel Ferreira , Daniel (Danilo) Zárate and Marcelo (Pana) Gavilán . They perform a varied range of musical rhythms.

paro

It can mean cessation or strike. Stopping work activity . In Colombia unemployment also means cheating, pretending. Inflection of stopping which means to cease, to interrupt, to stop.

parodia

It means that it is imitated, imitation. It is a literary genre. It is a work of art that is interpreted humorously or satirically, based on another work to which emulation or an ironic allusion is made. Song in which the melody is preserved but the lyrics are changed in a humorous or satirical way.

parodias

It is the plural of parody. It is a satitrica or a humorous representation of a work, an author, an artist, song or a song, by allision with irony, imitation or emulation. Quaint and humorous performance of a play. Satire, mockery, caricature, shadowing, farce, burlesque, imitation, simulation, simulation.

parolo

Surname of an Italian footballer who plays for Lazio. Its full name is Marco Parolo . He has played in the Italian national team 36 matches. In Colombia, erect, with erection.

parota

In Central America and Mexico it is the name of a tree. It is another way to call a tree of scientific name Enterolobium cyclocarpum, which is commonly known as rabbit, pinion, ear sprocket, caracaro. In Central America it is called guanacaste, corotú. It belongs to the fabaceae family.

paroxismo

It is an exaggerated degree of exaltation, it can also be a violent access to an illness, such as a choking cough or a seizure. It means exaltation, frenzy, exasperation, despair.

paroxismos

High degree of exaltation, hilarity and effervescence. Sharp and accurate attack of a disease or a feeling.

parpados

The correct term is eyelids, with tilde. Plural of eyelid. It is the name of the movable membrane that covers and protects the eye.

parpaiola

Ancient Italian currency that was used in Piedmont and Lombardy. It was used in the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries. Name of a song in Italian, performed by the Coro delle Mondine di Bentivoglio.

parquedad

It means quality or condition of parco . Frugality, sobriety, moderation. Dustiness, seriousness.

parquero

In Colombia is a person who goes well, remains or selling candy or ice cream in a park. It can also be a parking valet.

parqués

It is a type of table juego that is played with four tiles per team (which carry different colors). It can be played with four, six or eight teams. It is advanced according to the throw of a pair of dice. It consists of giving the complete circuit with each team token and wins who finishes first. You can play with different rules according to what is agreed with the players: blowing, killing or sending to jail who is reached with another token, etc.

parquizano

Soldier belonging to the Italian resistance in World War II. They were those who captured Benito Mussolini in Milan and was executed.

parra

It is another way of referring to the plant the vine or grape (Vitis vinifera) or also the Bryonia dioica plant, known as new or turnip of the devil of the Cucurbitaceae family. It is a surname of Spanish origin. La Parra is the name of a municipality in Badajoz, Spain.

parral

It is a cultivated land of vines or vines. Vineyard, vineyard, wine, vine. It can also be a large clay pot.

parrala

Argentina is a game of girls, tokens, which can be even pebbles and a pelotica. It is played with one hand and small on a flat space. It also receives other names like payana. tinenti, knucklebones or yas.

parranda

It is a word used colloquially in Colombia, which means party, foforro, festejo, pachanga, rumba, dance. Synonyms for revelry .

parrandear

In Colombia go partying or partying. Live joyful, content. Party . Living in partying or partying. In Antioquia, sing happily.

parrandero

Person who is very cheerful. He likes and enjoys the parranda. Party, pachanguero, cheerful.

parrandon

The correct term is brown with tilde. It means prolonged party, browning or snantling very long. Party. It is clarified that parranda is more general, it is used more for vallenato rhythm and squealing when it is plain music. Bustle, revelry, algarabía.

parraque

It's a sudden, low-gravity malaise. Dizziness, soponcio, yeyo.

parricida y matricida

It is parricide who murders his father and murders the mother.

parrillera

Kind of stove used for roasts. Metallic support of a grill. Person dedicated to roast meat on a grill. Lady who travels as a passenger on a motorcycle. Factory racks.

parrillero, parrillera

Relating to the grill. Who rides or travels on the grill. A person travelling as a passenger on a motorcycle. Companion of the driver of a motorcycle.

parrilleta

Diminutive and derogatory grill . small grill. Small-scale grill. Portable grill.

parrín

It is one of the common names of a toxic plant also known as abarraz, albarraz or matapiojos. Its scientific name is Delphinium staphisagria and it belongs to the Family Ranunculaceae. Diminutive of vine (vine). Small wild grape.

parroquiano

It means it belongs to a parish. In Colombia it is used as synonymous with individual, ordinary person. It can also mean faithful, parishioner, person who attends the religious rites of a parish.

parrandon

The correct term is parrandón, with tilde. Rising of parranda. Tremendous party, big or prolonged party. Party.

parrulo

It is the name of a futsal team of El Ferrol, in Spain. The Galician language means duck, anade. It is also one of the common names of a duck class.

parsimonía

The correct term is parsimony (no accent). It is the activities must be carried out very slowly, slowly. It means tranquility, calm, slow, phlegm, sluggishness, noises, frugality.

partenogénesis

Form of reproduction without fertilized eggs, only arises for segmentation or partition of the ovum without fertilizing. Occurs in worms, crustaceans, insects, reptiles, Batrachians, and fishes (tropical fish and shark hammer).

parthenope

Name of a mermaid in Greek mythology and also the name of an ancient city in Italy, which was Greek settlement. It gave rise to what is now Naples. Name of an Opera by Georg Friedrich Handel .

partida

It can mean broken, fractionated. It also means departure, departure, march, withdrawal, farewell, death, death. Another meaning is registration, annotation, document, entry, certification, death. It can also be used to indicate game, competition, confrontation, match showdown. It can mean amount of money or amount of elements, gang, gang, faction. Portion.

partidazo

It is an augmentative of party. It means very important or very intense match. Classic, derby.

partido

It can mean sporting encounter, political movement or kind of territorial division. It is also a starting inflection that can mean leaving, going out, traveling or also dividing, sectioning. break. Another meaning is profit, profit.

partihuana

Partihuana or better even parihuana, is a popular way to call an Andean flamingo or pink flamingo. It is also known as pariguana, parina, paruela, cocoon, jututu or chururu. Its scientific name is Phoenicoparrus andinus and belongs to the family Phoenicopteridae.

partirá

It is a turning point of splitting. It means cutting, split, Cleave, split, break. You can also mean leave, leave, leave, leave, defeat, beat, boot.

partirse el lomo

Split the lomo means working with much effort, to exhaustion. Do more than what the body resists.

partner

Word of the Spanish language, but language is not English. It is the singular of partners. In addition to partner or companion, it also means a couple.

partners

Word of the Spanish language, but language is not English. It is the plural of partner. In addition to partners or colleagues, it also means couples.

parto

It means childbirth, birth, giving birth, giving birth. The time when a mother gives birth to her baby. It may also refer to someone from Parthia, a region of Asia Minor.

parto gemelar

Childbirth in which there are two infants. Double delivery.

parto múltiple

It is the kind of births where there are several infants. Not only can be referred to deliveries of humans but of any species of mammal. It is a rating given to deliveries of several offspring, in species expected only one. Normal delivery in several breeding species.

partorcillo

Pastor's diminutive. Very young shepherd. Child who cares for sheep.

parturientas

Plural of parturient, It means women who have just given birth, women who have recently given birth to a baby.

paru paru

Paru Paru is the name of a community close to 40 Cuzco; 41 Peru; It's which is higher in Pisac. Paru in quechua means very toasted by the Sun, retostado. P " aru in quechua is soft Earth ready to make seedlings.

paruela

It is another way of calling the pariguana, also called parina, parihuana, tococo, jututu or chururu, it is the same Andean flamingo or pink flamingo. It is the name of a South American wading bird. Its scientific name is Phoenicoparrus andinus and belongs to the family Phoenicopteridae.

paruma

paruma is incorrectly written and should be written as "40 Paruma; is proper name)" being its meaning:
Paruma is the name of a stratovolcano located on the border of Chile and Bolivia. In quechua means dry, arid land.

paruresis

In medicine, it is the name given to a wide range of urination disorders.

parusia

The correct term is parish, tilde. It is a word of Greek origin that means advent, sold, arrival. It's coming, it's coming. In Latin it is said adventus .

parusía

It is a word of Greek origin that means advent, sold, arrival. It's coming, it's coming. In Latin it is deice adventus .

parva

In Colombia and especially in Antioquia and the coffee region, mean bread (of any kind, including the collations).

parvedad

It can mean little girl, girl, smallness, smallness. It has quality or quality of parvo. Which is small.

parvo

It is the name of a virus that affects small dogs and causes parvovirus. Name of a virus in the Parvoviridae family. The word as such means small, tiny, short, nimio or puppy.

pasabordo

Detachable from a ticket that allows you to enter an airplane to travel. Document that allows a passenger to enter the plane.

pasacaminos

In Colombia it is a species of snake (snake or non-venomous ofidum). This name is given in central Colombia. We also call it toche or jacket. It is also called tiger snake or flying. Its scientific name is Spilotes pullatus and belongs to the Colubridae family. Eat small animals like mice, lizards and even other small snakes.

pasadera

It can be placed on a pool table or a stream small or a type of rope used in navigation. In Colombia is also a way of referring the continuous passage of people. Inflection of pass (crossing, traverse). Continuous flow.

pasado

In Colombia it means person who overreaches in every way. Abusive, exaggerated, exceeded, trasfuga, traitor. It can also mean stale, fermented, rotten, over-fat, sned, spoiled, deciduous. In time it refers to an ancient time, moment before the present, history . Tradition, antecedent, antiquity.

pasado de copas

In Colombia "last night", means drunk, drunk, drunk, drunk, Myhotcomments, pigheadedness, pro-European.

pasado de kilos

You mean obese, overweight, of morbid weight. Fat, robust.

pasado mañana

It means in 2 days, within 48 hours. Day that will elaps after tomorrow.

pasador

In Colombia is a metal bar which is registered as sobreseguro at the doors, apart from the plate. Latch. It is also a jewel or ornament for the hair. buckle. In sports is the player who is typically make good passes, usually the best companion best located and with maximum potential score (applies to football, basketball, volleyball, etc).

pasador pasadora

It means he does good assists or passes. It is also a mechanical element that is used to secure something. Lock, latch, insurance. It can also mean strainer, fork, brooch or pin.

pasajero

It means that it lasts little time. In Colombia it means perishable, momentary, short-lived, brief, fleeting, transient. It is also a form of call to a user in any kind of public transportation (bus, taxi, subway, plane, boat, etc.). Traveller, hiker, Walker, tourist, transient. Also says passenger to a user of a hotel.

pasajes

Plural of passage, In Colombia can mean transport tickets, tickets, tickets. It can also be a path, walk or path. In some parts of Colombia a passage is also an elongated establishment (like a wide hall) where all kinds of junk are sold. Passage, corridor, alley, alley, tunnel. It is also used as synonymous with events, episodes, chunks, fragments, moments (refers to several isolated time periods).

pasando

It is an inflection of pass. It can mean many things: occur, happen, happen, cross, crossing, walking, travel, access, enter, driving, carry, approve.

pasapalos

In Colombia and Venezuela it is a way to call the passers-by, in the mid-oats, chopped or snacks. They are small pieces of food that are served at the table to eat as a meeting, party or chattuention progresses.

pasar el rubicón

It means daring, daring, over-limiting, taking a chance. Take on the consequences of boldness.

pasar factura

Means charge, get even, get revenge, compensation, retaliation, repair, compensation, severity, rigor, requirement.

pasar la gorra

It is the action after a spontaneous artistic performance in public of any nature, by means of which the artist hopes to be monetarily compensated for his presentation. To do this, use a collaborator or himself becomes a cap or hat collection box way. The gifts are voluntary and varied. Ask for donations.

pasar la noche en blanco

Suffering from insomnia, not being able to sleep. In Colombia we also say to spend the night awake.

pasar la noche en vela

It means suffering from insomnia, not being able to sleep. In Colombia it is also used in the same sense "spend the night in white".

pasar por alto

In Colombia it is an expression that means ignoring, ignoring, disdain, omitting .

pasarse

In Colombia it means transferring, Mans is, exceed the limits established for something. Exceed, overreach, Mans is, exaggerate, forget, ignore, damaged, damage, rot, ferment, sobremadurarse, wither, ajar is dry.

pasarse de la raya

In Colombia, it means overreach, lack respect for others. Disrespect, offense extremely. Exceed, is overzealous.

pasas

Grapes or dried prunes. Raisins are fruits that are dehydrated to preserve them better and longer.

pasatapuyos

They are an indigenous Colombian people. It is also called Piratapuyo, which means "The Fish Men", Piratapuya, Parata Puya, Uaikama, Wai Kana, Waikhana, Urubu-Tapuy. They live in the Departments of Caquetá, Meta, Guainía and Guaviare, specifically in the municipalities of San Vicente del Caguán, La Macarena, Inírida and San José del Guaviare. I guard the deer. They are considered distros in swimming.

pasábanse

It is an inflection of spending. It means exceeding overreach, overstate, damaged, rot, ajar is, wilt, forget. It is an inflection of pass, which means skip, convey, filter, sifting, admit, accept.

pasárselo a lo grande

It means to enjoy to the fullest. Have fun you best.

pascalina

Concerning Pascal . Relative to Blaise Pascal, the French mathematician and philosopher. Name of the first calculating machine invented by Blaise Pascal. It worked on sprockets and gears. It was also initially called an arithmetic machine and pascaline wheel.

pascana

In southern Colombia means rest stop during a trip. Rest, stop, whereabouts of boaters or travelers. It also refers to the inn where you stay overnight. Stage, day. It is the name of a locality of the Comas District, in the Province of Lima in Peru. Name of several tourist stop sites in Peru.

pascua

Name of a Pacific island belonging to Chile (rapa Nui). Name of a Region Chile that belongs to the Province of Valparaiso (insular). Name of a Chilean river in the Aysén Region. Commune of the same Region . Name of the main holiday of Christianity and which is also called Easter, ? Easter Florida , ? Easter Sunday , ?? or Easter Sunday? . It is celebrated on the first Sunday, after Good Friday (3 days after Jesus crucifixion Friday). Name of a Jewish holiday also known as Passover or Passover, a Jewish holiday that commemorates the departure of the Hebrew people from Egypt. Name of several minor festivities of Christian origin.

pascualcobo

It is the name of a Spanish municipality in the province of Ávila, which belongs to the autonomous community of Castile-Leon. Pascualcobo Antonio de Padua and on 3 February in honor celebrate holidays on June 13 in honor to San to San Blas.

pascuense

It may refer to the language, which is spoken on Easter Island, which belongs to Chile. It is also called Rapanui language. Natural of Easter Island, relative to Easter Island (Chile). Rapa nui .

pase-gol

It is an effective assistance in football. ending in goal. Characteristic of a good pin in football.

pasear

Walking or traveling to distract yourself. Move from a place on foot, by semoviente or by vehicle in order to distract yourself and enjoy the countryside and the outdoors.

paseo

It is one of the musical rhythms which has the vallenato in Colombia. Walk is a fun journey made by a group of people, usually to a spa. The name of several films of the Colombian cinema. Football: game in which one of the contenders overwhelms the other without compassion and win by a landslide (dance, win).

pases

It means combinations, assists, deliveries. It can also mean entrance tickets or tickets. In Colombia, driver's licenses. Inflection of passing, which means to occur, happen, traverse, transit, enter, carry, send, surpass, conclude, shut up, approve.

pashmina

It is an accessory to cover the hair and dress warmly, made of cashmere. It is the same as shal, shawl or wrap of colors. large scarf, woven in cashmere. Accessory that women use to cover the hair. woven with cashmere wool.

pasiflora

The correct term is Passiflora. It is the genus of creeping plants that have very showy flowers with many stamens and bright colors, also have edible fruits. These plants belong to the family Passifloraceae, of which there are about 360 known species and about 300 more in studies of taxonomy. Among the most common plants in Colombia this genre will name it only four: Ganadilla (Passiflora ligularis) , Matracuya (Passiflora edulis) , Curuba (Passiflora antioquensis) and Gulupa (Passiflora pinnatistipula).

pasifloras

They are plants which belong to the family Passifloraceae. They are characterized by creeping plants and have very showy flowers.

pasilla

It is a type of ordinary coffee and it is not export. Coffee that is not excellent. It has low smell (aroma) and flavor. It is also a type of chili that is black and wrinkled skin. By extension, ordinary, low quality .

pasillo

In Colombia is a native piece of music of the Andean area, played with string instruments. Colombian instrumental music of the Andean zone. It also means corridor, passage or corridor.

pasindhén

pasindhén is incorrectly written, and should be written as "Pesindhèn." being its meaning:
The correct term is Pesindhèn. It is the name given to a singer or vocalist of a Gamelan, also receives the names of Sindhen, Sinden or Waranggono.

pasionales

You mean caused by passion. Plural of passionate. Which is the product of enthusiasm or fervor. Emotional. Effusive, frantic, delirious, impetuous.

pasita

Diminutive of passes. Liquor or sweet made with raisins, either plums or grapes.

pasito

In Colombia it can mean diminutive of passage, small step. Also in Colombia he means in a low voice, with a voice remains. In Costa Rica it is synonymous with manger or nativity. Set of figurines depicting the birth of Jesus (Donkey, ox, sheep, shepherds, angels, Jesus, Mary and Joseph).

paskha

It is the name of a festive cake of Eastern Orthodox countries. It is similar to an Easter cake and is decorated with religious symbols. It is forbidden during Lent. The Word as such to say Easter. Hussien is also the name of a type of cheese. It has the shape of a truncated pyramid (missing the tip).

pasley

It is a surname of English origin. Last name of English military. Last name of a catcher in major league baseball. called JKevin Pasley. Name of two U.S. towns located in Missouri and North Carolina, pasmanse

pasmanse is incorrectly written, and should be written as "Pasmar is" being its meaning:
Inflection of pasmar is. Means to be astonished, stunned, surprised. Be stiff, rigid.

pasmarota

Pretend ingest surprise than you feel. It is also to fake a disease or exaggerate its symptoms. It can be synonymous with ademan, winding, demonstration, gesture, gesticulation, visa, pasmarotada, deception.

pasmosa

It means amazing, prodigious, admirable, extraordinary, wonderful, wonderful. Thing or attitude that causes amazement or admiration. It's surprising.

paso fino

Graceful and rhythmic movement of the horses. One of the equine movements that is rated by judges at fairs shows. The other gradable steps are trot, trocha, and canter.

pasojo

Pasojo is the same as that in Colombia we call construction. It is manure from horses (in the form of large balls).

pasos

In Colombia it is a surname of Spanish origin. Second surname of one of the best sports narrators to hit in Colombia, called Pastor Londoño Pasos. It also means stages, phases, periods, periods, lapses, stretches, stretches. Strides. Plural passing .

pasón

In Colombia in a colloquial way, check or look something in a hurry and without paying much attention. Read very fast or between the lines. Motear, pano.

pasquín

In general in Colombia is an anonymous pamphlet that is distributed to the public or is attached to poles and walls, which are disparaged or accuses someone or an institution. In Colombia we also tell pasquin to a sleazy tabloid, tabloid and literary newspaper. Newspaper gossip.

pasta

In Mexico it means money, hard cash. Dough made with various ingredients and soft and/or creamy consistency. Usually the base ingredient is semolina and water. Other additional ingredients are usually eggs, oil, salt. Typical Christmas sweet from Spain. It is also an Italian surname. Surname of a famous Italian soprano, called Giuditta Pasta (XIX century). Name of South Korean television series, Toothpaste. Mixture of powders and grease.

pastafrola

The correct term is pastafrola. It is the name of a traditional artisan cake from Paraguay and Argentina. The original was a dough coated with quince candy, but there are currently many variants.

pastafrola

It is the name of a traditional artisan cake from Paraguay and Argentina. The original was a dough coated with quince candy, but there are currently many variants.

pastal

In Colombia it is a land where grass abounds. Grassland, paddock, zacatal.

pastanaga

It is one of the ways of calling the carrot. It is also called pastinaca, grid, acenoria, azanoria, bufanaga, carota, Charlotte, carruchera, carrot, pastana. The scientific name is Daucus carota and belongs to the family Apiaceae.

pastar

It is the action of feeding livestock in a meadow. Put cattle in the meadows or pastures, release in a pasture. PACER, browsing, herbajar, graze, grazing.

pastas

Typical Italian food. Plural of pasta. Pasta is basically candéal wheat flour and comes in several different presentations.

pastaza

The correct term is Pastaza. It is the name of one of the 24 provinces in Ecuador is administratively divided. It is the least populated in the Mainland, and its capital is Puyo.

paste

It is an inflection of grazing, which means eating grass or grass. Also in Costa Rica is a way of calling the scourer, a natural fiber sponge that is obtained from a plant of the Cucurbitaceae family, scientific name Luffa aegyptiaca.

pastel

In Colombia, it has several meanings. In Colombia is told cake to the trap of students copying exams: papelillo, torch, copialina, copy. Cake we also say to the cake, biscuit or ponque. Also cake to say matte, opaque, which is not brilliant. It is also a frying or mass, usually of cassava, carrying rice, beef or chicken and egg inside, another way of calling them is bun. Told a beef or chicken pie covered with puff pastry cake. Pie. Graphically represent percentages by a circle.

pastelear

In Colombia it means cheating students in exams, through chivas, blowtorches or cakes (little pieces of paper with important data). make cakes or decorate cakes. As in Colombia, it is to concoct, plot, plot, machine (associate with another to harm a third party).

pasteleo

Pastry action or effect. It means cheating or copying in exams, bad students, decorating cakes or cakes, or also concocting, scheming, plotting something with another against someone. Plot .

pastenaca

It is the name of an Argentine song (tango), performed by Francisco Canaro and Charlo. The word as such means in stupid, silly, silly, idiotic, asshole language.

pasterma

It is a kind of dry ham. It is a meat beef, goat or preserved lamb and strong flavored. Meat dried and pressed, smoked meat. Pastirma is also true. It is part of the Greek and Turkish cuisine mainly.

pastiche

In Painting, it is the action of modifying some type of work or combining it with original characteristic elements to give it a new and independent appearance. It is a term of French origin (Gallicism).

pastiches

Plural of pastiche . In Painting it is the action of modifying or altering a work giving it the appearance of being new and independent. It is combining original characteristic aspects of a work with new ones, giving it the appearance of originality.

pasticho

It is the name of a Mediterranean dish similar to lasagna or lasagna. Baked pasta.

pastilla

Diminutive of pasta . In Colombia it means jelly, medicine paste, tablet. Medicine in the form of lentil . It is also the name given to the asbestos bar or similar material that acts on the brake discs of cars.

pastizales

Plural of grassland . They are lands where pastures abound. In Colombia we also say pastures. Areas of vegetation of low porte .

pastizo

A way of calling a place that was tidy and clean and that was transformed into dirty and messy. Chaotic. It is also a type of empanada or cake, usually vegetables and tuna. They are typical in the Valencian Community at the time of Easter. Pastis, cake.

pasto

Plant that belongs to grasses. Meadow, grass . Cattle food, fodder. Name of a Colombian city that is the capital of the Department of Nariño. In Colombia in a colloquial way, voluntary advantage that is given to adversary that is considered less strong. Grass, feed, pasture, grass, meadow, grassland, meadow.

pastor

Person who takes care of the livestock, especially of herds. A person who directs the Christian rites. Matt in chess, with the least number of moves. Name of biblical origin male and means that cared for his flock. Cabrero, Sheperd, cowboy, zagal, prelate, clergyman, Minister, priest, priest, guide.

pastor leonés

It is a breed of sheepdog of Spanish origin. They are also called carea, carea leonés or dog of Aqueda.

pastorcillo

Diminutive of shepherd . Little Shepherd . Little Shepherd . A name given to one of the essential figures of a manger or nativity scene. Name of a popular Christmas carol.

pastorejo

It means outer and bulging part of the cervix or neck. Never, nose. Hit on the back of the head. Cebu cattle nose.

pastorela

Type of Provençal poetic composition on the life of shepherds and their romances. Simple and cheerful typical song performed by shepherds. Simple song and aalegre.

pastrami

It is the name of a red meat prepared in brine. He smoked and he can prepare steamed. In Argentina it is called pastron. The Word as such comes from the Romanian pastra, that means keep, keep.

pastrana

It is a surname of Spanish origin. Last name of two former Colombian presidents (Misaél and Andrés). Name of a Spanish municipality . Guadalajara Province.

pastrón

It's another way to call pastrami. It is a meat preparation, especially beef by using brine.

pastrullo

pastrullo is incorrectly written, and should be written as "Pasuyu." being its meaning:
I think that the question is pasuyu or pasuyuy. Words in quechua language meaning are which has been widowed. Pasuy, widower. That has become a widower.

pastrulo

In Peru it means addict, drug addict, degenerate. In Argentina it means dumb, dumb, stupid, stupid.

pastuña

It is a surname of indigenous origin. It is found in southern Colombia and Ecuador. Relative to the grass language, a local variant of Quechua in that region. It may refer to the language spoken by them or to the people themselves.

pasturar

It means feeding livestock. Keep the cattle with good food, with good pasture. Pasture.

pasturri

In Chile residual coca base paste. Residues from the manufacture of coca paste. "Coca" of poor quality.

pat

It is an English word meaning caress, pat. Football is an extra point or extra point that you get when kicking the ball from the floor, after scoring a Touchdown (both, landing), as long as the kicker inserts the ball between the sticks (field goal). It is also a computer acronym for Port Address Translation. It is also the acronym for a TV channel in Bolivia (short for Associate Journalists of Television).

pata

It means leg, foot. Lower extremity . Each of the supports of a table, chair or sofa. Each of the supports of a piece of furniture. Lower part of something, especially a mountain or a building. Female duck .

pata de lana

A person walking on the tips of the toes to not be detected. Person walking very soft and delicate. It is also a person who not stomp or weak pace. Slinky lover extension, petty thief and spy.

pata en el suelo

In Colombia it is used more leg to the ground. It means peasant or very humble person, the common person. Poor, poor. Colloquially in the Llanos examining is poor, peasant, Creole, humble, patirrajao, barefoot. It is also a form of mean prudent, realistic, sensible, cautious, measured, sane, serious, judicious.

patabá

It is another common name that receives a palm tree, also known as Majo (in Bolivia), La Palma de Seje, Milpesos, Unamo, Ungurahua oil. Its scientific name is Jessenia polycarpa (U Oenocarpus Batawa) and belongs to the Arecaceae family. An edible and medicinal oil is extracted from it.

patache

It is a way of calling a cabotage ship in the North of Spain. Cabotage sailing vessel.

patacones

Plural of patacon . In Colombia they are banana slices that are crushed and fried (Patacón pisao). They are usually crisp and saladitos. It is a companion of many typical dishes and can be considered a separate dish according to its size and additives.

patacón

Colombia is a slice of green bananas, crushed and that is refrita. It serves as accompaniment in many dishes or as input or snacks. Crushed and fried plantains.

patada

kick. Hit hit with the foot, hit hit with the paw. kick. It can also be a set or a litter of ducks.

patadazo

It means kicking, kicking, kicking. Strong hit given with the foot.

patadón

Increased kicking. Strong hit hit given with the foot. Hit hit with a leg (caused by an animal). Coz.

patagona

It can mean native to Patagonia. It is also the name of a spoken language in southern Argentina, in Patagonia. It is also called Tehuelche. It is also the name of the people who speak this language. It is also commonly called Aonikenk, Patagonés or Thuelche.

patagonia

It is the northernmost region of Argentina, Chile and South America. Extreme South of America. In Colombia Patagonia means very far, very distant, far away. .

patagorría

It is a dish that is prepared in the North of Mexico, with entrails of kid, blood, egg and seasonings. It is very typical of Afro-Mexicans or afrosimolas. It is very similar to something in Colombia and especially in Santander we call Fricassee.

pataleta

In Colombia means tantrum, foolishness. It can also mean fainting, fading, momentary and unexpected disease, paratus. Action, by which a child tries to convince and manipulate his parents.

patamar

It is a type of vessel used in India, especially on the coasts of Malabar and in Ceylon (Sri Lanka). Its origin is Arabic, from the Dhow or Dau, which is a medium boat of a triangular sail (it has a single mast). In Portuguese it is a word meaning plateau, rest, level.

patana

Female jerk. Rough, ordinary, rude, vulgar,, rustic woman. In Dominican is the name given to an elongated body truck.

pataqueta

In Valencia it is a type of muffin in the form of 8 filling, which is consumed as a sandwich. Light lunch of the workers.

patarato

It means embarrassing or ridiculous fact. Shame, adefesio, ridiculous, paper, risible, quirky, extravagant, flashy.

patardo

The correct term is firecracker. It means that it produces noise, DIN, which is loud, thunderous. Pyrotechnic element that aims to make noise. Thunder, taco, volador, explosive. Propaganda system used by illegal forces to take notice and promote fear in the community. Form of terrorism. Colombia also we say firecracker at a soccer player that is purchased with many illusions and disappoints everybody. Fraud, deceit, fraud.

pataria

It is the name of a movement opposed to the Archdiocese of Milan, which arose before the appointment of a nobleman named Guido de Velatte, as bishop. It is also called the Patarino Movement. They opposed the supremacy of the nobles over Papal spirituality (simony). This occurred between 1056 and 1057, in the time of Emperor Henry III of Germany and Pope Stephen IX. One of its consequences was the Gregorian Reformation.

patarino

Name of a popular congregation that opposed the appointment of Guy de Velatte as bishop of Milan, in the time of Henry III (1045). It was also called Pataria. Person who belonged to the Pataria.

patarinos

Community made up of marginalized minorities (poor and vagrants) in Paris and elsewhere in France. They were also called sistrons, lepers, gaphos, mesilleros, chistrone. Many were treated at the Pitie-Salpetriere clinic.

patarra

The most suitable term is Patarrá . it is the name of a town in the Province of San José in Costa Rica. It is the name of a liana or bejuco (it comes from the indigenous word putarra).

pataruco

In the Llanos of Colombia and Venezuela is a rooster that is not suitable for fighting, ordinary rooster, which is not of breed, which is not fine.

patas de gallo

Wrinkles that come out next to the eyes with age. Triad of wrinkles that come out in the eyes.

patasola(colombia)

The patasola is a mythological being of the Colombian folklore represented by a woman's mouth and very large teeth, long, tangled hair and protruding eyes. It eats human flesh and suck the blood of their victims.

patata dulce

It is one of the common names that receives the sweet potato, potatoes, moniatos, sweet potato or sweet potato. Its scientific name is Ipomoea yams and belongs to the Convolvulaceae family.

patatin

It is more indicated patatín . It means trickery, apology, misrepresentation, sophistry. The expression "patatín , patatá" , refers to "que si , que no" , ambivalence . that is not defined , that doubts .

patatús

In Colombia it means swoon, fading, fit, the drowsiness effect. Fainting, weakness, faintness, dizziness, discouragement.

patauá

It is one of the common names that indigenous people give in Colombia to a kind of palm tree. It is also known as seje, palm seje , patagu'a , ungurahua , ungurahua , milpesos , majo , patabá . one. Its scientific name is Oenocarpus bataua var . bataua, and belongs to the arecaceae family. It has gastronomic and medicinal uses.

pataza

It is an augmentative of leg. In Ecuador and Peru, is used to designate an inseparable companion, friend, companion of adventures and pranks, similar to that in Colombia we call key, parce, brother, corduroy, carnal, cachá.

patazo

Augmentative of duck. Colombia uses duck in two meanings. Domestic fowl and person sticking to events or rides without having been invited, bum, upstart, intruder, entremetido, cast.

patán

In Colombia it means vulgar, rude, indecent, uneducated, suffice. It also means villager, villager, rustic.

pateador

Person or animal that kicks a lot. Horse that gives coces. In various sports, such as football, rugby and football, he is the player specialized in kicking or sending the ball quite far with the foot or charging free kicks. Kicker, collector.

patear

In Colombia shoot, give kicks a ball. Also walking, patonear, cast quimba, lend a paw.

pateca

In Chile, pateco or pateca means short legs, in Colombia also say paturro or patiano.

patela

It is another way of calling the kneecap, knee bone or chocozuella.

patena

In the Catholic Church is a sacred dish, usually of gold or silver, in which the hosts are placed.

patente

You can have several meanings. It is the exclusive right of an inventor on a product and its marketing. In Colombia also used as authorization, permit, registration, certificate, or license (official document, patent of operation). It is also used as an adjective meaning clear, clear, visible, obvious, notorious, palpable.

paterna

It means related to the parent or parents.

paterno

It means relative to the father, or to the father. Of the father, of the father.

pateta

It can mean crooked or deformed legs. It's also another way to call the demon, devil, or paws.

patialegre

In Colombia it has two common meanings. One refers to a person who is very restless and partying, who "does not miss even the run of a cot", who is willing to have fun at all times. Alebresed, troubled. She's also a prostitute woman.

patiana

In Colombia it means short legs. In Colombia it is a breed of horses and cattle of little elevation. Also in our country, it means relative to the region of Patía, which remains in the river valley of that name between the Departments of Cauca and Nariño.

patiano

It's a class of low-elevation cattle. Cattle dying. Short-legged cattle. In Colombia it also means related to the Patía (it is the name of a river and an adjacent region, in the Department of Cauca, Colombia).

patilimpio

In Colombia patilimpio is a person who does not use footwear, who walks barefoot, clean walk. It is a derogatory way of referring to an Indian. Leg clean mean walking, go on foot.

patilla

In Colombia it has two meanings. One is hair, part of the beard or villi that grows ahead of the ears. The other is the name of a cucurbit plant and its fruits which are also known as watermelon, Sindría, aguamelón or water melon. Its scientific name is Citrullus lanatus (belongs to the Cucurbitaceae family).

patin

The correct term is skateboard, with tilde. Diminutive of Pata. Implement that allows to skate or slide. Adjustable platform on the foot that allows to glide on the ground. You can have wheels or knives. In some cases it is only a very smooth surface. Slider.

patina

It's a skating inflection. It means slipping or sliding on a smooth surface. It's also riding on skids. In Colombia in a colloquial way skating is to be a messenger, carry documents from one office to another with the aim of expediting a process.

patinador

Person who practises the sport of skating. That rides on skids. It means it slides or slides on a smooth surface. In Colombia in a colloquial way is to be a messenger, carry documents from one office to another with the aim of expediting a process.

patinadora

A woman who practices the sport of skating. Lady riding on skates. In Colombia, skater is said to the person who is dedicated to transforming documents from an office to another to speed up procedures within an enterprise. It also makes them externally, with important documents of your company. Messenger, insurance.

patinadores

In Colombia it is the colloquial way of calling the couriers of the offices. Brokers. Athletes who are engaged in the sport of skating.

patinar el coco

In Colombia it means madness, it is a colloquial locution, to which we have as a synonym to dechave or run the shampoo. It's doing things that aren't ropes or normal.

patinódromo

Skating rink. Strip smooth terrain and generally oval shape which allows you to scroll on skates. Court for skating competitions.

patio

Open and indoor space. Interior area without buildings or roof. Free space .

patiquín

City person. Person who keeps an eye on fashion and its changes. It was also the stage name of a Puerto Rican bolero and salsa singer, also known as Paquitín Soto. His full name was Francisco Soto. His grandparents were Spanish.

patirro

It is a common surname in Chile's Mapuche. Derogatory way of referring to a priest.

patirrojo

It is the vernacular name of a very common European lat. Its scientific name is Erithacus rubecula and it belongs to the family Muscicapidae. It is also often called Motacilla. It has a very melodious song or is insectivorous.

patía

In Colombia it is the name of a very important river that flows into the Pacific Ocean.

pato

In Colombia is synonymous with brewing, person who comes to a meeting without being invited. Also means guilt (take the duck). A person who travels as a passenger on a motorbike, barbecue. Person's foot flat walking with open toes. Domestic fowl swimming in lakes or ponds, its scientific name is Anas spp.. Many species are and belong to the family Anatidae. Duck is the name of an equestrian sport originating in Argentina. Duck is the name of several players from different countries, like Pastoriza (Argentina), Alexander Pato (Brazil), or musicians, artists and singers (Benton duck, duck pepper). It is the name of a town in Buenos Aires, Argentina. It is a Spanish surname and that also exists in Portugal.

pato aguja

It is one of the common names of a water bird. It is also known as snakebird or marbella. It has a fairly long and thin neck. It lives in tropical areas, especially in marshes and mangroves. It belongs to the genus Anhinga and the family Anhingidae.

patoco

In Colombia is a way of calling a small but very poisonous snake. Its scientific name is Porthidium lansbergii and belongs to the Viperidae family. This snake attacks especially in evenings and especially in the hands of those who carry lighted lanterns (maintains among the leaf litter and in the branches of bushes). It is also called tamaga, nose pig, pyuta, tamaga, toboba, toboba, chinga, bourgaena Viper, chelonodon, butterflyfish.

patofobia

It is the exaggerated fear of suffering from any disease. Fear of getting sick.

patografías

Plural of pathography. In medicine it is the way of describing a disease. It comes from ducks (evil, disease) and graph (description).

patojo

It means young, adolescent boy in Colombia. Also mean Parrot, Parrot, Parrot, Parrot (bird). It is also a person who walks by limping or limp, like a duck. It is also a colloquial way of calling someone born, resident or related to Popayán, Department of Cauca. Popayan.

patojos

In Colombia we are affectionate as we call the born or residents of the city of Popayán, in the Department of Cauca. Payaneses.

patolli

It is a game similar to the yesh or turmequé practiced by the ancient Amerindian aborigines.

patología

It is the branch of medicine that is responsible for the study of diseases. Physical or mental disease affecting the patient. Condition, disease.

patos

In Colombia colloquially, sneaking in, people who enter an event without paying for tickets or who arrive at a party without being invited.

patota

According to Jorge Luis. Gang is a very Colombian term to mean a very large group of family members who walk in group. This is because that was traditional in Colombia and especially in Antioquia and Caldas very large families. The word comes from how the leg, female duck, when walking, is always at the forefront of all calves that can reach 15 and always carries them in group. Herd consisting of leg and its stiff.

patoterismo

It's the habit of walking in groups, herds or gangs. Group feeling, tendency to live in groups or gangs. Tendency to form duckies, to instill respect or frighten.

patotero

Aggressive person. provocative. Also in Colombia means gangster, who is part of a duckling or a gang. You like to live integrated into groups.

patógeno

It means that it produces or causes diseases. It can refer to both plants and animals. They are usually microbes or microorganisms. That generates evils or diseases. It is also often referred to as a germ or pathogen. It can be a fungus or a bacterium.

patra????a

The correct term is humbug. Then lie, lie, fallacy, tangle, gossip, deception, infused, slander, trap.

patraña

Invention that has the object of deceiving or harming . A short story invented and of a novel character. It means deception, lie, embeal, infuse, falsehood, slander.

patras

It is the name of the third city in size of Greece and is the most important economic and political centre of Greece.

patriarca

Man of experience and wisdom. It means head, head, guide, wise, Bishop.

patriarcas

Plural of patriarch . It means older man of great experience and wisdom. It means chiefs, heads, guides, sages, bishops.

patrias

It means related to the homeland. It refers to the land of our fathers, the land that gave us birth, family or clan. Places to which we have much affection or we have adopted. Lares, countries, Nations, peoples, cots, origins, nationalities.

patricia

It is a woman's name. You are familiarly told Paty or Tricia. It is of Latin origin and means woman of noble descent.

patricidio

It means killing of parents or the father. Homicide or heinous crime, in which a son kills his father or to his parents

patricio

It means father of the nation, national hero. Aristocrat, noble, privileged, remarkably, personality, character, distinguished. Name of male of Latin origin and means of noble lineage.

patriotas

In Colombia it is the name of a professional football team of the First Division or Category. It is headquartered in the city of Tunja, in the Department of Boyacá. Plural of patriot. It means loyal, patriot, who fights for his homeland or his nation. Independent, procecer, nationalist.

patrocinante

It means sponsor, person who financially supports another or a noble cause. Sponsor, sponsor, benefactor. That it pays for expenses from another.

patroclo

patroclus is incorrectly written and should be written as "Patroclo (is 41 name;." being its meaning:
The correct term is Patroclo (41 own name;. It was the name of one of the heroes of the Trojan war. Son of Melecio.

patrol

It is a word from the English language, meaning patrol, watch, round, outpost.

patrolizar

In engineering patrolizar is making formation of a surfacing using a motor grader.

patrono

Holy that is considered to protect a region. Person or saint who protects, protects or defends. Protector, defender. Holy church owner or guild of man.

patrón

It means boss, who has the command, command, the one who gives the orders. Employer, contractor, master, host, owner. It can also mean mold, model, last, design, guide.

patrulla

Patrol inflection. It means hovering, watching, guarding, caring. In Colombia vehicle in which the police or army makes surveillance rounds (motorbike, car or van). It can also mean group of soldiers, military or police. Detachment, crew, squadron, picket, platoon, squad.

patrullaje

Patrol action or effect. Surveillance tour made by the authorities, especially the police or the army. Inspection tour made by the patrol.

patted

It can mean webbed. It can also be a pat inflection, which means caressing, touching, patting (patting)

patuá

It is one of the ways to call a type of Amazonpalm, It is also called palm seje, milpesos, unamo, ungurahua, patabá or patauá. Its scientific name is Oenocarpus bataua (or Jessenia bataua) and belongs to the family Arecaceae. Patuá (in French patois) is a linguistic variety, mostly asanistic, from the French language. It is used in some parts of the Caribbean and in rural areas. Lexicons tend to be local and different. It is widely used to try to make yourself understood, accompany you with hand signals or gestures.

patuco

It means mitten, skate, woven piece of wool that covers the feet. It can be for babies or for adults.

patucos

In Colombia they are also known as skates or escarpines. They are shoe shoes or baby woven shoes. They don't have a sole. They're usually wool.

patudas

It means prominent or long-legged. Colloquially very long legs and beautiful women. Zanconas.

patujú

Name given in Bolivia to the flower of Heliconia rostrata, which is one of the national flowers of that country. It also receives other common names: silver and heliconia.

patullar

It means stepping hard. Crush with your foot or heel. Crush. Also patoning, rambling, walking a lot and without a definite purpose.

patulleo

It is an activity that is performed in the process of tanning skins or leathers. It consists of exposure to the action of tannins and involves the flipping of the skins.

paulatina

It means gradual progressive, slow, paused.

paulatino

It means that it occurs gradually, slowly, slowly, slowly but steadily. Staggered, progressive.

paulicianos

It was the name of a Christian community that appeared in Armenia and developed in the seventh century in the Balkans and Anatolia. They were precursors of the Bogomils and the Cathars. .

paulista

It means relative to Sao Paulo. Originally from Sao Paulo (the State of Brazil). Resident in Sao Paulo . Swollen or fanatical of the Sao Paulo football club of Brazil. It is also the complement or surname of several especially Brazilian footballers, to differentiate them from another with the same name but from another region. Gabriel Paulista, Brazilian football player, whose real name is Gabriel Armando de Abreu. Name of the football championship that is played in the State of Sao Paulo. It is clarified that the gentile used for those born in the city of Sao Paulo in Brazil, is Paulistano (a).

paulo

It is the variant in Italian of Paul. It is a proper name of male. Means the minor and is derived from Latin. Paolo.

pauly

It is a familial form of calling Paul and Paulina (or Pauline). Form of remoque or nickname used with Paul Montgomery, actor, comedian, director, writer, and American producer.

paupericidio

It means murder of poor people. Death by Murder of Homeless People

pauperico

pauperico is incorrectly written and should be written as "Pauperrico or impoverished" being its meaning:
Combining what says Pedro Crespo Refoyo (I have a friend named Pedro Crespo curl) I think who wrote the application, intended to tell pauperrico or impoverished. This refers to a very poor population, or with too many economic hardships, almost without sustenance.

pauperismo

He wants to decir extreme poverty. A lot of poverty.

pauperizar

It means impoverishing, leading to ruin, leaving poor, leading to inopia. Ruin.

paupers

It is an English word meaning beggars, very poor persons. Very poor people, beggars.

paupers

It is an English word which means beggars, beggars, poor, homeless, beggars, beggars.

paupérrimas

It means very poor, needy, needy. Poor female and superlative plural.

paupérrimo

He's a poor superlative. It means very poor, extremely poor.

pauro

You want to tell where the water flows. Mana, spring, water birth, aljibe.

pauta

It can mean stripe or stroke . Also notice , advertisement , commercial (in radio slang) .

pautado

It means agreed, agreed, agreed. It is an inflection to pautate, which means to agree, agree, to make a pact. In broadcasting or in media in general it is used to point out something that is done through the advertising mode with paid propaganda.

pautar

Establish contractual conditions for issuing a notice or propaganda. Agree , contract , agree . Set rules or determine how to execute an action.

pauto

In Colombia it is the name of a river of the Department of Casanare.

pava

Pava-Colombia is a name given to a hat woman who has wide-brimmed and serves to protect themselves from the Sun.

It is also one of the common names that receive galliforme family (Cracidae) birds and which belong to the genera Penelope, Guan, Aburria, Chamaepetes and Penelopina. They are native from South America. Colloquially and between smoking cigarette butt. Chachalaca, curassow.

pava aburria

In Colombia it is one of the common names of a species of bird in the family Cracidae. It is also known as blue bill pava (or piquiazul), black pava, gualí or guayón . His scientific name is Boredom. The name is the onomatopoeia of his singing and was imposed by several indigenous communities. It is typical of the humid forests of the Andes.

pava grande

In Colombia it can mean three things: a hat for ladies wide-brimmed, a mountain bird also called peacock or can be a type of pot with lid, usually made of steel or aluminum to make tea or heat water.

pavada

It can be a herd of turkeys. Set of turkeys . It also means nonsense, foolishness, stupidity, foolishness.

pavesa

Incandescent particle that jumps from the flame. Chiribita, fogonazo , spark, centella, ash, favila. Brasa that turns off slowly.

pavesas

Plural of pavesa . A pavesa is a light, small particle that is released from an inflamed matter, a burning or burned body or from a coal and then turns into ash. Initially when flying it carries some fire or light.

pavezno

Uncommon way to call the turkey pups. Pavipollo, pavito.

pavé

It is an accepted gallicism. It means paving stone, block of stone or concrete rectangular shape that is used to make roads, highways or roads. In Brazil is a frost, made with shortbread tart. Brazilian dessert type.

pavipollo

It's another way to call juvenile turkeys or turkey pups.

pavonearse

Displayed with the intention to offend or humiliate. It means showing off, bragging, displayed, displayed, hold, bragging, boast, boast, pavor

You want to say with great fear, with much fear, panic, terronera, horror, AWE, horror.

pavón

Colombia is one of the common names of fish in fresh water, especially in the Eastern Plains. We also say tucunare, cyclide or sergeant, its scientific name is Cichla ocellaris and belongs to the family Cichlidae.

pawkar

It is the name of a bird, also known as backpacking.

pawkara

pawkara is incorrectly written, and should be written as "Paucara" as meaning:
Born or originating in the Peruvian Paucara district is one of 8 districts in the Acobamba province, located in the Department of Huancavelica, under the administration of the regional Government of Huancavelica, Peru

paxakua

It is a kind of fungus very gregarious (live in numerous groups) and that is edible. Its scientific name is Lepista irina. It is also called fungus Brad.

paxnikak

It is the name of a sauce of Mexican origin, which is prepared with chiles, sesame seeds and macerated leaves of avocado and alfalfa. It is eaten with tacos or tortillas.

paya

In Colombia is a municipality in the Department of Boyaca, near Pisba and limits with is Department of Casanare.

payachis

In Mexico it is a way of calling an artist who play a clown and also a comedian who tells jokes. Variety comedian.

payada de contrapunto

In Chile and Argentina mean songs improvised with between two people (itinerant singers) and argument between verses. Confrontation between people by means of verses, contrapunteos or trovas almost always improvised. Puya between singers or Chilean payadores.

payador

In the folklore of the South American Southern Cone means person who makes verses or coplas, usually in an impromptu way. It is something similar to what in Colombia we call verseers, copleros or troubadours.

payanar

It means grind, crush, crush, grind, knead, soften, macerate. It is a way to soften the corn to make multiple preparations.

payandé

In Colombia, it is one of the common names of a tree and the name of a township of Ibagué (Tolima). The tree also receives the names of Guamúchil, henhouse, Pinzán, Chiminango, Gina. Its scientific name is Pithecellobium dulce and belongs to the Fabaceae family. Its fruits are known as guamaras.

payandé guamúchil

Although it is true what John says about named geographic sites, both words are common names of a tree that is also known as chiminango, pizan, chicken coop, cuamuchitl, gina. Its scientific name is Sweet Pithecellobium and belongs to the fabaceae family.

payanejos

In Colombia it is the official gentile of people born in Popayán. Resident in Popayán related to Popayán . Familiarly we call them ducks.

payaneses

He is the gentile of those born in the White City of Colombia (Popayán). We affectionately call them ducks. Natives or residents of Popayán, Cauca Department, Colombia.

payanés

It means native of Popayán, Colombian city, capital of the Department of Cauca. He is affectionately called a patojo. Relative to the Capital of the department of Cauca or to Popayán. You can also use popayanejo or patojo.

payara

In Colombia and especially in the Eastern Plains, it is the common name of a freshwater fish. We also call it devil fish, dienton or chambira. It has a very developed denture, which makes it a very voracious and effective hunter. Its scientific name is Hydrolycus scomberoides and belongs to the family Cynodontidae (meaning dog teeth). It is found in the orinoco and Amazon river basins.

payasear

It means making the likes of a clown. Execute jokes or taunts in the spirit of making you laugh. Give shows of healthy humor.

payoc

A pokemon is legendary ice-type.

payolero

It may refer to the collector or payer. It is a form of bribery that exists in the radio and musical medium, through which with payment of coimas is made disclosure of new products of an artist or composer.

payula

In Mayan language means, reprimand sanction, punishment. Used in Guatemala and El Salvador to designate a sickly, emaciated person. In Colombia we say Jipato.

payulo

It means jipato, pale, yellowish. You have whitish or lighter skin than normal.

paz

It means tranquility, calm. Absence of conflict or war. Concord, harmony, friendship, serenity. It is also a woman's name. Reconciliation.

pazguato

It means bobo, dumb, slow, slow, stupid, idiotic, BlockHead.

pádle

In Slovenian padle means fallen and in English paddle means paddle. It is a game, tennis variant, that is played on a smaller court than the traditional and with a lower net. On the court there are no typical doubles alleys, but the most important thing is that it is played with a solid racket, similar to those of table tennis or ping pong. In Spanish you can use the term padel .

págueme

Inflection of pay. Form of payment direct and imperative.

pájara

In Colombia it is a way of calling the fainting of an athlete for having made an excessive effort. Pale, fainting, fainting, fainting, light sickness, dizziness, vertigo, collapse.

pájaro

Bird is a surname in the Colombian Atlantic coast. Bird belonging to the order Passeriformes. Usually small birds that fly and are singing. In Colombia says bird to a bandit to a malechor. Also told bird to the male member and the female clitoris.

pájaro vaquero

It is one of the common names of a bird very common in South America and the Caribbean. It is also called blackbird, common blackbird, thrush, Queen Josmary, gamusino, parasitic chamon, morajú, common thrush, Chupin and azulãovaquer, blackened and mulatto thrush, cowboy bird, cowboy bird and blackbird cowboy. Its scientific name is Molothrus bonariensis and belongs to the family Icteridae. It is a very gregarious bird (it lives in herds or flocks). It is one of the best known specimens of laying parasite, because they do not make nests but deposit eggs in nests of other species.

pálida

Colorless, beige, pale, that it has lost colors, the Colombia also means fainting. It is a slang way of saying that he fainted or that he lost consciousness. also colloquially yellow card, admonishment.

pálido

In Colombia you mean colorless, yellow, died. Livid.

pálpito

It means feeling in Colombia. Have suspicions, presage, suspect, predict, glimpse.

pámpanos

Plural of pampas . It means soft and green shoots of the vine plant. Buds, tender leaves of the vine. buds, children.

pánfilo

It means naive, Candide, innocent, bobo, bobalicón. It also means giving, good-natured, kindly. It is also a name of male, of Greek origin and means "friend of all". Pamphilus also in ancient Greece was son of Egimio King of the Dorians. Also Pamphilus was a Greek painter. Both belonged to the tribe of Sicyon (or Sikion).

pápago

It is the name of an indigenous Mexican tribe settled in the Sonoran Desert. Language spoken by this same people.

pápiro

Common name given to a plant of the family Ciperaceae (genus Cyperus). In the ancient Egyptian language it means flower of the king. Written document of ancient Egypt. Fiber of vegetable origin that is usually used since ancient times to make papers for writings, mats, ropes, baskets and even boats.

párison

Parisian is also used. Hollow plastic tube from which a bottle or other hollow object is blown away.

párpado

is the name of the fold of skin that covers the eye. Muscle covering the eye.

párvulo

It means little boy. Very young school. Infant, child who studies in preschool.

pátina

Oxide of a metal. It means rust, rust, oxidation, rust, patina, Cardenillo.

páuper

It is a Latin prefix that means poor, very poor, without resources.

pávido

It means fearful, fearful. It also means shy, you feel dread, shy.

pã©treo

PA © treo is incorrectly written, and should be written as Petreo being its meaning:
The correct term is stony, means hard as stone. They are synonyms: stony, peñascoso, Rocky, hard, stubborn, inflexible, granite, tough, rigid.

pdg

PDG is incorrectly written and should be written as "PDG is an acronym for" being its meaning:
The program of 40 Directorate-General; PDG) provides innovative perspectives on the complex business challenges that, as CEO, you face every day. At the end of the program you've strengthened your ability to manage your company's performance, achieve excellence both in the strategy and in the implementation of the change, and provide criteria, commitment and a shared vision that will take your business to new levels of success.

pdvsa

It is the acronym for the Venezuelan oil company, "Petróleos de Venezuela Sociedad Anónima".

pea

In Colombia it means drunkenness, drunkenness, drunkenness. Juma, raw, jinchera. A condition caused by excessive liquor consumption.

peak

It is a word of the English language meaning peak, summit, mountain, elevation, tip, crest, summit.

peana

It means pedestal, platform, base that is placed to put on top a bust, sculpture or image. Base of the window or windowsill . It can also be called base or comb. Cut branch of the olive tree. Ramón.

peaña

It means pedestal, platform, base that is placed to put on top a bust, sculpture or image. Step, step, podium. Base of the window or windowsill . It can also be called base or stand. Cut branch of the olive tree. Ramón.

peã³n

Sofia is incorrectly written, and should be written as a "Pawn." being its meaning:
The correct term is pawn. It means worker, peasant, worker. Tab of the chess.

pebeta

In Argentina means girl, young lady. It is also the name of a paste made with aromatic powders, in the form of a stick and incinerated in a pebetero. Ash, aromatic powder.

pebete

Pasta made with aromatic powders that is used to incinerate and generate pleasant environments. Incense. Small tube containing gunpowder to make fireworks. In Argentina it means boy, boy, young, kid or kid. Diminutive of pibe. It also means Vienna bread or small bread from Argentina and Uruguay, widely used to make sandwiches with ham and cheese.

pebetero

It is the name given to a container with a small stove and perforations that is used to burn incense, incense burners, perfumes and essences. It can also be called a censer? or the timiaterio to which they are very similar.

pebre

It is a kind of popular in Chile sauce. It is chopped onions, tomatoes, cilantro, garlic and pepper. In Colombia we say peak of gallo and Bolivia llajua.

peca

It is the name given to a slightly dark spot that appears the skin because of sun exposure. Inflection to sin, which means erring, failing, violating a rule, or breaking a commandment. Falling into sin, transgressing a rule, violating a mandate.

pecajías

The correct term is Pekahiah (it is a proper name). King who ruled Israel and enemy of Judah.

pecaríes

Peccaries are known in Colombia as Zainos, collared peccary, peccaries, car mount, rosillo chanco, chacharo or peccary. In Mexico say them taitetú, coyamel. They are in America. Its scientific name is Pecari tajacu and belong to the family Tayassuidae.

pecas

It is an inflection of sin. It means transgress, violate a rule or a religious precept. Err, Miss. They are also a few dark spots on the skin. Ephelides.

pecatamía

The most suitable term is "pecatta mi". It is a Latin locution that means my defect, my sin, my fault. It was used to indicate suspicious increases in capital or of dubious provenance. For this reason the grandmothers had the adage "Sacristan that sells wax and has no wax, from where it pecatta mine, if it is not of the sacristy". It is used as a synonym for dubious, suspicious, rare.

pececito

It is a diminutive of fish, small fish, small fish, Minnow. The name of a children's song.

peces

It is the plural of fish. Animals vertebrates, aquatic and branchial respiration. They have fins that allow them to move into the aquatic environment and most have the body covered with scales.

pecesito

pecesito is incorrectly written and it should be written as goldfish. being its meaning:
The correct term is goldfish. Diminutive of fish. small fish. Fish boy, larva.

pechera

Strip of leather that surrounds the chest of the horse. All matters relating to something that is used on the chest (garment for example).

pechereque

It is a bad quality which is clandestinely manufactured in stills, using cane molasses. It is synonymous with chirrinche or tapetusa. Money is in Mexico and Peru breasts or breasts. Chicken breast.

pechero

They were also called a villain or commoner in the old regime of Castile. He was a person who in the Middle Ages was obliged to pay taxes to the King or a Feudal Lord. It can also be a fabric or leather that covers or protects the breasts of infants, adults or animals. In Colombia we use it more in feminine (pechera).

pecheros

Plural of breastplates. It is a piece of cloth with moorings that is placed to babies, so that they do not dirty clothes when eating. Bib. It is placed on the chest.

pecheto

Eye is also used. It is a term used in Uruguay, Paraguay and Argentina. It is the name of a cut of meat with egg from the hindquarter of the cattle.

pechiazul

Common name of an insectivorous bird. It belongs to the muscicapidae family and its scientific name is Luscinia svecica, which means "Swedish nightingale".

pechiche

In Colombia and especially on the Atlantic coast is caress, mimo, consent, affection, grimace, arrumaco, I delight. It is also one of the common names of a tree in Ecuador, also called Tarumã. In Colombia we say Aceituno, its scientific name is Vitex cymosa and belongs to the family Lamiaceae.

pechiches

It means affections, pampering, caresses. Samples or gestures that reflect tenderness and affection. It is a widely used word on the Colombian Caribbean Coast.

pechichón

In Colombia and especially on the Atlantic Coast is the person who receives caresses, pampering. It is synonymous with pampered, pampered, dear, spoiled.

pechita

The Peshitta is a version of the Bible of Syriac. Pechita is one of the many names that have him in Mexico to carob, carob, or mesquite tree. Its scientific name is Prosopis juliflora in the Fabaceae family. In Colombia we also say mesquite or trupillo. .

pecho

The chest is formed by the pectoral muscles. Pectorals. Trunk.

pechos

It is the plural of chest. Chest part. It refers to a part of the body, located in the front, below the neck and above the stomach. Torso, bust, chest. Plural breasts means breasts, breasts, breasts, puchecas, add, lolas, udder.

pechosa

It means breasts, tits, breasts or big breasts. Busty.

pechote

Increased chest. Big and beautiful chest. Colloquially, I, my person (this breast).

pechuga

In Colombia is synonymous with chest, breast, chest. Breast or keel of the birds. More fleshy part of a bird (chicken).

pechugas

Breast plural. Chest or pectoral of birds, By extension breasts or breasts (especially referred to if shown part of them).

pechugón

In Colombia it means dim, scoundrel, gorrón, rescuor, pedigree. Person who lives at the expense of others, who lives in a cap or asks too much. It is also a way of referring to a very foolish child or person. Annoying, annoying, tired, uncomfortable.

pecina

It is the name given to organic matter in decomposition of the bottom of a lake or pond. Mud, mud.

pecio

Name given to each piece, fragment or piece of the wrecks of a shipwreck. Waste, pieces, fragments. It was also a kind of tax or fine charged for a shipwreck near a port.

pecorino

It is the name of a variety of Italian cheese, which is made with sheep's milk.

pecosa

Person or woman who has many freckles. In Colombia colloquially it is a way to call a football.

pecoson

It's a loving way to refer to a person who has many freckles on his skin. Freckles.

pectoral

Protective shell that is placed on the chest. Muscle from the trunk to the height of the nipples.

pecuario

Everything is related to livestock and its use. Livestock. Economic sector which complies for the handling of all types of livestock, production of inputs, management of the herd and use or benefit from their products and by-products.

pecueca

Bad smell in the feet. Fungal disease in the feet.

pecueco

In Colombia it means bad, low quality, negligible, worthless.

pecul

It is also the name of a Guatemalan volcano located in the departments of Sololá and Quetzaltenango, Suchitepéquez, is called Santo Tomás volcano. Pecultepec.

peculado

It is the crime committed by an official by wasting money from the public treasury. Embezzlement of public funds.

peculiares

Plural of peculiar . It has properties or characteristics that differentiate them from others. It means distinctive, characteristic, typical, singular, special, own. Weird, different.

pecuniariedad

It is the same as patrimonialidad. Refers to the quality of the inheritance or property that is received, is owned or has been acquired. Properties, assets, finances, wealth, fortune, legality, succession, inheritance. Concerning currency or money that you have.

pecunio

Expected to say their own money, currency. It comes from the Latin word pecunia. Not be confused with the term expense, mean well inherited, that is received by inheritance from the father. Inheritance, inheritance. It comes from the Latin word Peculium.

pedacción

It is the educational work with children. Education. Way to educate or train children.

pedaceria

A set of pieces that make up a whole. Puzzle.

pedacitos

Diminutive and plural of piece. Small fractions. Very small pieces.

pedal

Relative to the foot. Mechanism that is driven with the foot to move a wheel or bicycle. Lever that is operated with the foot. In Music it is a long sound on which several chords are executed.

pedalazo

Impulse that is given with the foot to the pedal to make the bike ride.

pedalero

It can be considered as a synonym for pedalist, cyclist. That rides on a cycle, that pedals. Relative to the pedal .

pedalista

A person who uses pedals to move something. Person or athlete to pedal, mounted on cycles (bicycle). In Colombia: Cyclist, runner, beetle, velocipedista, cyclist.

pedantisimo

pedantisimo is incorrectly written, and should be written as "Pedantisimo" as meaning:
The correct term is pedantisimo (with tilde). It is a qualifying adjective, means pedantic to the end. Superlative of pedant. Petulant, presumed, stretched, fatuous, vain, engolado.

pedantísimo

It is a qualifying adjective, means pedantic to the end. Superlative of pedant. Petulant, presumed, stretched, fatuous, vain, engolado.

pedarquía

It means authority exercised by children. Children's Government.

pedazo

In Colombia it means part, particle, fraction, chunk, fragment, piece. For many it can be an augmentative of part, very sound flat. In some countries it is taken as synonymous with giant, eye-catching, big, majestic, great, great.

pedazos

It is the plural of piece. It means fraction, portion, piece, fragment, part, piece, unique.

pedernal

Flint. It is the name given in geology to a type of very hard rock, which when fractured forms very sharp edges. It is made up mostly of silica and small amounts of water and alumina. A variety of quartz that is compact and translucent at the edges. When it rubs against other rocks, it produces sparks. Name of two towns in Argentina (one in the Province of San Juan and the other in the Province of Entre Ríos).

pedestacion

Pedestacion means to walk or be of foot, although the most appropriate i.e. standing as you walk or stand with both feet not with only one (Well unless you have one leg and have crutch, if it changes to have a prosthesis, it would equally be bipedalism).

pediatado

It means moored, maneado 40 feet; it means tied legs) tied, tied down, immobilized.

pedigree

It is a word of the English language. It means certificate of descent or genealogy. It refers to the lineage and origin of a purebred animal. It may especially refer to dogs, cats, horses, and cattle. Purity of the breed, origin and genealogy of an animal to be judged at a fair.

pedigri

The correct term is pedigree, with tilde. It is an Anglicism originated from the word pedigree (also from the French pied de grue). It means document or certification that endorses the genealogy of quality and purity of breed of an animal (dog, horse, cat, res). Quality, lineage, ancestors and origin of an animal. By extension : quality or lineage of something or someone. Abolengo, illustrious ancestry of a person.

pedigrí

It is a written document that certifies the genealogy or lineage, origin or origin of a purebred animal, be it a horse, res, dog or cat. Excellence or purity of breed of an animal.

pedigüeño

In Colombia it is the same as beggar, almsman or beggar. Person living off public charity or begging. That asks the others. Person who lives on alms.

pedigüeño crónico

The word chronic should always bear tilde. Person who spends his time permanently asking for favors, loans or aids.

Beggar, beggar.

pedilona

It is synonymous with gorrón, pedigueña, vividora, parasitic, sablista. Person who constantly lives asking for favors, loans or gifts. It is a term used in Venezuela. Female pedilon.

pediluvio

It is a type of tray of chemical-resistant material that is used to disinfect feet or footwear.

pedir cacao

In Colombia, it means ask for clemency, forgiveness. Beg, plead.

pedo

It means flatus, flatulence and gas. In Colombia in a colloquial manner: Brawl, rina, get, mess, disorder, chaos.

pedocal

It is a term that is deprecated in the classification of soils. In geology is a kind of soils rich in calcium carbonate (lime), hence its name Pedon or edafos means soil, ground, stratum, and lime is calcium. It has very little organic layer, so the horizon is very thin.

pedofobia

It is the phobia, fear, fear or aversion to children.

pedorra

A person suffering from flatulence, in colloquial language.

pedorro (a)

Suffering from gas or flatulence. In Colombia dirty . It is also used to denote contempt or contempt for someone.

pedófilo

Perverted man, sexual abuser of children. Man who practices pedophilia.

pedracero

It is the name of a corregimiento of the municipality of Ariguaní, in the Department of Magdalena, in Colombia. It can mean place where stones or large rocks abound. It can also mean natural of Pedraza, municipality of the Department of Magdalena.

pedrada

Hit given with a stone or pebble. Pedradón, pebble.

pedrea

It is a violent action consisting of a stone-by-stone confrontation between protesters and policemen.

pedreas

In Colombia, clashes of the police with students in demonstrations, which uses stones and bricks as projectiles.

pedregal

Site where the Stones abound. Piedrero or pedrero . In Ibagué, it is the name of a neighborhood. Land where deposits of boulders abound.

pedregosas

Places or terrains where rocks or stones proliferate. Pebbles, rocky, stony, pedrisqueros. Place where stones abound.

pedrera

It is the name of a municipality located in the province of Seville, autonomous community of Andalusia, Spain. It is also a municipality in the Venezuelan state of Táchira. Municipality of Uruguay, Department of Rocha . Name of a locality in Colombia, not municipalized that is within the department of Amazonas . Quarry, a place where stone is extracted.

pedreros

Plural of pedrero. In Colombia is a surname of Spanish origin. It was a type of small canon, about 45 centimeters and with a mouth of 3 and half or 4 centimeters. Generally threw stones at a medium distance. Slinger, soldier who in ancient times used the honda or throwing stones. The person who tills the stone. It also means few, pedregal, pedriscal.

pedrones

It means big rocks, huge stones. Large stones. Plural of pedrón .

pedróloga

Person who knows the future by throwing some stones on the table. Who knows about stones or petrology. Who knows the life of St. Peter. Gemologist .

pedrólogo

It is a type of soothsayer that predicts the future, by using stones or gems.

pedrusco

In Colombia is a piece of rock or stone. Hail, stone, Pebble, rock, singing. Ouija board.

pedrusco

In Colombia is a piece of rock or stone. Hail, stone, Pebble, rock, singing. Ouija board.

pedugo

It is the name given to a sock for baby, woven in wool. In Colombia we say Mitt. It can also mean little boy, baby, baby.

peer

It is an English language word that means to look, see, look carefully, appear, observe. In Spanish it is the action of expelling the gases of the digestive tract. Ventosear.

pega

In Colombia to say glue, rubber. It is also used as synonym of joke, joke, banter, fun.

pegadito

In Colombia it means very united, it does not separate. It remains next door, inseparable. Diminutive of glue.

peganum

It is a plant genus of the family Nitrariaceae. They are known as ayahuascas or harmalas. Antidepressant infusions can be prepared with them and generate even more euphoria. With a high consumption generate vomiting, guavas (or hangovers) and diarrhea. Plants of the genus Peganum are considered magical plants.

pegar

It means joining using a glue. Join, join, join, fix. It also means hitting, pounding.

pegarse al parche

In Colombia, it is the same as joining the combo, joining the group. It refers to decide joining recreation or leisure activities which involved are a group of friends.

pegatina

Sheet of paper that has glue or adhesive on one of its faces. It is usually an adhesive containing information or propaganda. In Colombia it is the nickname of a sports journalist of RCN (Radio Cadena Nacional), whose real name is Adgar Montoya. It is also called decal or sticker. It sticks or sticks. Sticky.

pegollo

It means leg, foot, stand or base. It's a word of Latin origin. Name of the pillars where a hórreo or a troja rests. They can be made of stone or wood.

pegollu

It is the name of each of the pillars on which the bread baskets and granaries are supported, in Asturias. Pegollo . Pegoyu . Fat and strong leg. Name of a famous and typical cider house in Santander, Spain.

pegoste

Very persistent person to accompany another. Chewing gum, sticky.

pegostrar

In Colombia, it is synonymous with smear, rub something thick, gelatinous. Cover with rubber, tar or resin wood. Form a pegostre or glob. Immunize the wood. Anoint, grease, dirty, stained, enmugrar.

pegostre

In Colombia it is a glue emplasto. Goop. Also in Colombia in a colloquial way, useless person. Apocalypse character, pelele, simple, monigot.

pegote

In Colombia to say very thick, sticky, mazacote, mazacotudo, as a mass, such as PuTTY, such as pasta, mushy.

Lumpy, grumoso. It looks like concrete or mortar.

pegón

It's a type of Arabic script. It is used in religious writings and poetry. It is also widely used for writing in Javanese and Sudanese. In America it's a way to call a boxer who throws a lot of punches. Puncher. It hits a lot, it hits a lot of blows. Also in my land is called pegon or sticks to the dry or toasted part of a food that is over-cooked, to the point of drying. It is used mostly with rice.

peguerinos

It is the name of a Spanish municipality in the province of Avila. It belongs to the autonomous community of Castile-Leon.

pehuajó

It is one of the names of a plant of the family Marantaceae. It receives other common names: Peguajó, Huajó, Platanillo, Caporuno. Its scientific name is Thalia geniculata.

peinate

It is an inflection of combing and styling. Then slide a comb through the hair in order to organize them. Guachafita, Rochelle, batahola, hubbub, riot, turmoil, indiscipline, crying, laxity, disinterest, idleness, neglect.

peinilla

In Colombia it is the same as comb. Implement used to comb or straighten hair. Also in Colombia is a kind of machete a little thinner and shorter than the traditional. Diminutive of comb .

peipus

YARV is incorrectly written and should be written as "Chudskoe (is 41 name;." being its meaning:
The correct term is YARV (41 own name;. It is the name of a lake in Russia and borders with Estonia. The battle of the ice was developed in its vicinity.

peitho

Goddess of Ancient Greece who embodied seduction and persuasion. She was worshipped by the powerful who asked her to maintain great influence over her subjects. Name of an Ocean. Name of an asteroid .

peito

In Greek Mythology, she was one of the Oceans. She was the daughter of the Titan Ocean and the titan Tethys. She was the sister of Dione, Doris, Calypso and Metis. Mother of Apis and Egialeo. She was Argos' wife.

pejiguero

That brings difficulties, inconveniences or setbacks. Annoying, tiresome, annoying. Tired.

pejivalle

pejivalle is incorrectly written, and should be written as "Tejivalle" as meaning:
The correct term is Tejivalle. It is a company of tissues of the Valle del Cauca in Colombia. It is headquartered in Cali.

pela

In Colombia means sheath, spanking, physical punishment violated to foolish children.

pelada

Colombia says bare a girl, to a youthful, adolescent, girl, Maid, junior bridesmaid, girl, guipa, guambita, chamita, chama, girl, mozuela. In Colombia we say also peeled the bald, the part of the head that has no hair, baldness.

peladera

In Colombia, set of peels or peels (colloquially, children, infants, minors).

peladofobia

It is a colloquial way in Colombia to refer to the phobia of children (which here we also say guambitos, pelados or chinos). It could be considered as a synonym or Colombianism for pedophobia, misopedia or paidophobia. In Mexico it will be fear or phobia of bald people, pelados or pelones.

peladuras

It means slag, scratches, superficial wounds on the skin. Scrapes.

pelaez

Peláez is more suitable. It is a surname of Spanish origin, specifically Asturian. It is a patronymic surname of Pelayo (Pelagio in Italian).

pelafustan

The correct term is pelafustan, always with a tilde. In Colombia and especially in Bogotá, street boy, street dweller boy. Lazy, lazy, gamin. By extension, vulgar language person, profanity, rude.

pelafustán

In Colombia and especially in Bogotá, street boy, homeless boy. Lazy, lazy, gamín. By extension, vulgar language, foul, rude person.

pelagiana

Relating to Pelagius or Pelayo. Type of doctrine considered heretical by many Catholics.

pelagianismo

A movement or doctrine that denied original sin. It is considered a heresy. It was promoted by San Pelagio or San Pelayo.

pelagra

It is the name of a skin disease caused by inadequate intake of Niacin (Vitamin B3). It has several symptoms, such as diarrhea, lack of appetite, stomach pain, delusions, weakness and especially desature dermatological ulcers, especially on skin exposed to the sun.

pelaito

In Colombia in a colloquial way child . It can also mean allopathic, bald.

pelaíto

It is a very colloquial form used in Colombia to say child, guipa, guambito, guagua, nene, kid, boy, kid, teenager, chavalillo, chavito, stars, escuincle.

pelaítos

In Colombia, children and little ones, kids.

pelaje

Coat of hair covering animals. Abundant and thick hair. Hair, hair.

pelambre

It means thick, hearty hair. Fur.

pelandruscas

pelandruscas is incorrectly written, and should be written as "Pelanduscas" as meaning:
The correct term is pelanduscas, although pelandruscas is used. It refers to street prostitutes or ports, is a derogatory way to call them. The origin of the word is that in ancient times the street prostitutes were punished for exercising this activity case to the hair. Derogatory and colloquial way of calling the pelanduscas.

pelangoche

You mean rude, coarse, vulgar, foul. It is also a taco that carries many ingredients (typical Mexican food). He is also told Pelangocha. In Colombia Pelangoche, Pelangocha, Pelanga or Chingarria is the name of a street dish that has a sweat or stew of pork and beef, potato and rice paste.

pelao

Colombia has several meanings. The first is equivalent to young, boy, boy, Chinese, guipa, guche, bedbug. Young underage. A second meaning is nude, no clothes, viringo, empeloto. A third meaning is shellless or barkless. Finally it means corn piled and cooked. Corn to which the cuticle has been removed. Corn that is prepared to make arepas or antioqueña mazamorra, which in other regions they call peto.

pelapelambrua

Mechuda, grenuda, with much liming. It refers to the person who has long hair, but neglected. With long hair, hairy.

pelar

In Colombia it is peeling, debarking, removing the shell or bark. It also means undressing, undressing. In Colombia in a colloquial way shaving or shaving, also denigrating or discrediting. In slang of ludopaths or players, take all resources away from the opponent, leave him without money to bet.

pelargon

Pelargon, is a brand of milk powder for infants. Augmentative pelargo or pelargos, which means stork, in ancient Greek. Relative of what looks like a stork.

pelargonio

In Colombia it is also the common name of a garden plant of beautiful and permanent flowers. It is also known as geranium, boyfriend or gitanilla. It belongs to the family Geraniaceae and there are many species. It is the Spanishization of the term pelargonium, which means that it looks like a stork, in reference to the appearance of the flowers.

pelasgo

Name of a village of remote antiquity that settled in Greece and Italy. It means that it comes from the sea. Name of the first man to inhabit Arcadia, son of Gaia. Name of several characters from Greek Mythology. Name of the King of Argos who welcomed Dánao and his daughters. He was also called Gelánor and was the son of Esténelas and grandson of Crotopus.

pelazo

Augmentative of hair. Very long and abundant hair. Shaggy hair. The barley straw elongated mechanically to make it more fibrous. It is accomplished through the use of cylinders of stone. Forage.

peldaño

Step, Tier, Ladder. Each of the platforms on different levels form a staircase. Each of the parameters set for an ascent or progression. Partial success, intermediate achievement.

peldón

It is the name of a town in England in the County of Essex.

peleadera

Continuous fights, alegadera, permanent cantaleta. Frequent fights between the same people.

peleados

Plural fighting. Inflection of fighting, which means quarling, arguing, displeasing or displeasing.

pelearse

Enter disgust or fight. Upset, ill. Disagreeing, scuffling.

peleas

It is the plural of fight. You want to tell rina, lio, Brawl, fight, Brawl, disputed, contest, contest, lid, disagreement.

pelele

In Colombia it means fool, fool, asshole, pusillanimous, person who allows himself to be manipulated by another very easily. Monigote, puppet, puppet, badulaque.

pelendengues

It means testicles, gonads, tompiates. Noble or intimate parts of a man or woman.

peleonero

It is a term used in the Colombian Atlantic Coast means aggressive, violent, provocative, brawling, bellicose, offensive, fighter. bully, belligerent.

pelet

It means ball or ball. They are small portions of compressed or agglomerated material. Parts of a concentrate to animal feed.

peletero

Person who is dedicated to fur, that is, to the tanning of skins and their commercialization.

pegiagudo

That presents many difficulties to be carried out. In Colombia it means difficult, complicated, hairy, horny, complex, arduous, difficult, hard, impossible.

pelida

I think that it is asking for hairy or pale. In the first case it means with abundant hair. In the second it means that she is livid, which lacks natural blush on the cheeks. In this case, in Colombia we also say jipato or jipata.

peligrado

That it has been subjected to any danger, at risk. Vulnerable, threatened, compromised.

peligros

Plural of danger. It means situation which generates a risk, threat of occurring a misfortune or setback. Risk, threat and insecurity.

peligroso

It is an adjective denoting offering endangerment, which represents danger, which can cause damage. Risky, exposed, insecure, alarming, risky, threatening, fierce, fearsome, aggressive, uncontrollable, fearsome.

pelilarga

In Colombia it means long hair. Long hair, mechilarga, mechuda.

pelioia

In medicine and Dermatology is a clear spot on the skin, also are considered blue (not black). It is a type of cancer or tumor of the skin.

pelionero

A person who likes to fight, bully. Conflicting, Warrior, fighter, buscaruidos, pleitero.

peliosis

It is a term used in Medicine. It is a benign pathology that occurs rarely and usually, but not exclusively, affects the liver. It is characterized by the presence of blood-filled lagoons.

película de terror

They are films whose theme produces fear, fright, panic viewers. They are usually about things paranormal, supernatural, ghosts, monsters or zombies.

pelín

In Colombia it means a small amount of something. Tris, pinch. Little.

pella

It can have several meanings. It could be a ball of dough. It can also be another way to call a diaper. Pella is the same as pellet or pellet. It is a fraction or part of a conglomerate or concentrate. It exists in wood, plastic and concentrated foods. Particle, grain, pill, paste, tablet.

pellejo

Piece of skin that has separated from the body. Name given to the superficial skin that covers a fruit or vegetable. Leather.

pellet

You can also use pella or pélet . It is the name given to small portions in which an agglomerate or tablet material is divided or presented. The term is equally valid for different types of materials. Concentrate grain, pill, tablet.

pellis

Brand of Cuban sweets.

pellizones

Plural and increased pinch. Plural of pellizón . It was the name of a long old robe, lined in leather. It was loose and simple. It was used in the late Middle Ages. The word is of Latin origin (pellicia), and means elaborate leather, made with skins. Fur coat. Pellicia, pinch, pelliza.

pellín

It is one of the common names that give a very large, also known as coyan, haulte, oak tree in Chile and Argentina. Its scientific name is Nothofagus obliqua and belongs to the family Nothofagaceae. Nickname to Pedro Rodríguez de Gracia "Pellín Rodríguez", singer of El Gran Combo de Puerto Rico (the University of Salsa). Pedrito. Diminutive of Pello.

pellon

The correct term is pellón, with tilde. In Colombia is a fabric of wool placed between the chair and the horse with the intention of protecting it and not to hurt him. Bichara.

pellón

It is an element of rectangular fabric, woven in cotton or wool. It is of crude texture and is used under the saddles of the rides. Poncho, matras.

pelmaso

The correct term is fat, with z. It means clumsy, slow, heavy. Also refers to a rather compact and grumoso. Inlay, tight, compacted, crushed.

pelmazo

In Colombia and especially in Bogotá, it means bobo, fool, pendejo, brute, beast, tardo. Person of very little intelligence. It also means inopportune, annoying, annoying, tiresome, uncomfortable. That hinders .

pelmieni

It is a word of Tatar origin meaning ear or ear-shaped, it is a typical Russian, similar to Italian ravioli dish, they are masses of ground beef, wrapped in flour and egg. In Poland called it uszka.

pelo

Hair is a fiber of keratin that covers the scalp of humans or the skin of many animals. Born in the dermis in the follicle or root and extends away from the skin with its stem or fiber. Pubescence, hair, thread, filament, bristle, coat, Wick, grenå. In Colombia to say a small amount, triviality, Bicocca, insignificance, pucho puchito, nothing, stupid.

pelona

In Mexico means hairless, bald, alopecia. In colloquial way a skull or death.

pelosi

It is a surname of Italian origin. Last name of a U.S. businessman, owner of the American Football Team (Sacramento Lions) and Financial Leasing Services. His name is Paul Pelosi. He is the husband of the Speaker of the United States House named Nancy Pelosi, married, because his birth name was Nancy Patricia D'Alessandro.

pelota

It is a way of calling areas of leather, rubber or any other material, used to play sports such as basketball, soccer, volleyball, tennis, baseball or table tennis. Ball, ball, ball. In Colombia there is also a way of calling a testicle. Similarly, it is a poor-quality player. Bad package.

pelotas

Name of a rubber or elastic spheres that serve to play football and other sports. There are oval balls such as rugby and football. Ball, ball, spherical. Vulgarly in Colombia testicles. Name of a Brazilian city and its football team. It is also the name of a river in the same state. It is in the state of Rio Grande Do Sul. In Colombia, balls is the way to call unquality, bad football players. Packages.