INTRODUCTION

amp.wordmeaning.org is an open and collaborative dictionary project that, apart from being able to consult meanings of words, also offers its users the possibility of including new words or nuancing the meaning of existing words in it. As is understandable, this project would be impossible to carry out without the esteemed collaboration of the people who follow us around the world. This e-Book, therefore, was born with the intention of paying a small tribute to all our collaborators.

Rodrigo Caiza has contributed to the dictionary with 4 meanings that we have approved and collected in this small book. We hope that the reader is very valuable and if you find it useful or want to be part of the project, do not hesitate to visit our website, we will be delighted to receive you.

chinchinal

In Ecuadorian mountain range, particularly in the province of Pichincha (I do not know if in the other provinces it is found) there is a tree of not very large proportions called Chinchin has a particular aroma, of yellow flowers, its seeds are in a pod that when dried when shaken produce a sound somewhat like a rattlesnake. I then deduce that the place populated by bedbugs is called chinchinal.

con una mano delante y otra atras

This expression is often used in popular jargon to indicate that a person was left with nothing he previously possessed, everything was taken away. It would be as if to indicate that he remained naked and barely covering his private parts.

de frente mar

Abbreviated sentence of : "Front march" . In Ecuadorian educational and military institutions, civic-military parades use the phrase : " seafront . . ." to indicate that the forward gear movement should be undertaken. This order is given in a parade of educational institutions by the authority that directs it and in military parades, by the rank officer at the helm.

The term guatita refers to a typical dish of Ecuadorian cuisine, it is a kind of stew made from small pieces of beef stomach, potatoes (potatoes) among other ingredients, this goes in a peanut sauce . He is usually accompanied by rice and avocado.
