apólogo

An apologue is a parenética narrative whose purpose is to indoctrinate on any ethical or moral principles usually located at the end or the beginning of the same so-called moral. Unlike fable, which shares a similar purpose, it is not starring for animals, but for people, and also differs from the allegory that can neither be starring abstract ideas in human form. Neither can be considered similar to the parable or symbolic account, because some types of parable, as Kafkaesque parable, may be does not possess any moral instruction in their own end, but reveal the desperate situation of man in reality. In reality it is a subgenre of the didactic genre
