caletre

In Venezuela, is very common to use (By teachers, professors and students at different levels of education) phrase " study in the 34 caletre; to mean that the person only read and I memorized most did not understand... of which detaches the affirmation that the person who studies thus gives the following adjective "Caletrero " which as a result would mean: " person who studies through reading and that memorizes only what they read in the text, but it is not able to analyze or understand the meaning of its contents ". (This technique is used, usually by many students only to present and an exam).However, would be good to know the etymology of the above-mentioned phrase for the purposes of determining if intension, the use of the same, has been adjusted or if on the contrary, there was a serious mistake in its inception, because the synonyms of the word "Caletre " They seem to not fit very clearly with the meaning that has been attributed to this phrase.
